

CONTENTS

	Page No.
Foreword
Stock Market picks-up but Focus on Agriculture Rohantha N.A. Athukorala	01 - 04
Plantations to Benefit from Contract - Growing System N. Yogaratnam	05 - 08
Will The Rubber Prices Decline in The Future? L M K Tillekeratne	09 - 11
SI's Tea Industry Needs Market Driven Policies... Rohantha Athukorala	12 - 15
Project Issue Management - Identifying and Resolving Issues N Yogaratnam	16- 19
Carbon Sequestration and Storage Potential in Coconut Plantations C S Ranasinghe	20 - 23
Time to Ponder and Re-evaluate Plantation Industry as a whole on their Sustainability and Profitability Sarath de Alwis Sirisena	24 - 27
Influencing Climate Change policy in Sri Lanka Nishadi Eriyagama	28 - 31
Rubberwood Biochar : Production and some Agronomic Benefits When used in Rubber Nurseries R S Dharmakeerthi, J A S Chandrasiri and V U Edirimanne	32 - 39
Challenges to overcome in meeting increasing global demand for natural rubber S.Sivakumaran and Tham Foo Keong	40 - 57
Protect our rubber plantations for long-term sustainable yield and economy under prevailing rubber prices A.M.W.K. Senevirathna	58 - 61