SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY POLICY for National Development: A Window on the Asian Experience* is published by the: FOUNDATION FOR INTERNATIONAL TRAINING for Third World Countries. Information about it may be obtained by writing to: Executive Director, FOUNDATION FOR INTERNATIONAL TRAINING; 1262 Don Mills Road; Suite #200; Don Mills, Ontario; CANADA; M3B 2W7.

This book of articles was developed under the terms of a collaborative agreement between the UNITED NATIONS EDUCATION, SCIENTIFIC AND CULTURAL ORGANIZATION (UNESCO) and the FOUNDATION FOR INTERNATIONAL TRAINING (FIT). Additionally, FIT inputs were made possible by financial assistance from the CANADIAN INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AGENCY (CIDA).

The ideas, attitudes and opinions expressed by the articles contained in this volume represent those of the respective authors and do not necessarily reflect those of either UNESCO, CIDA, FIT or any other organization. Notwithstanding, UNESCO, CIDA and FIT remain dedicated to the ideals characterized by this production, namely, greater application of the rigours of science and technology to the problems of development and an increased sharing among Third World countries of mechanisms for achieving this ideal.
