

multiplication. Shoots continued to multiply, with some clusters of shoots having over 30 shoots and buds. Both species showed continuous shoots proliferation over the 2 year period under observation.